

February Junior Beach Ranger class

The Junior Beach Rangers found two victims of the harsh winter beach - a dead swan and a dead opossum. The opossum's paw looks like something out of a horror movie.

Junior Beach Rangers learn about photosynthesis.

Setting out along the beach for a winter discovery hike.

A sea star is a surprise find along Trustees Road. The Rangers guessed that it was dropped there by a gull.